Payment Terms and Conditions

Each webinar is normally $35 for the one event. However, Aslan Counselling & Education may promote special offers which will be clearly outlined on the registration page.

Registration and payment from each participant are required prior to attending the webinar. Participants who have not enrolled but attempt to attend the webinar using another registrant's webinar link will be removed and blocked from future events.

Should a participant book then is unable to attend, they must notify Aslan Counselling & Education of their inability to attend at least 24 hours prior to the commencement of the webinar. In this instance, they have the option of gaining credit to register for another webinar or receiving a refund. All credits must be used within a 12-month period from the date of notification.

Notifications of an inability to attend within the 24-hour period will not receive a refund. However, they can nominate another person to take their place, if Aslan Counselling & Education receive the nominated person's registration information at least 2 hours prior to the commencement of the webinar.

Once a participant attends their registered webinar, no refund will apply.

No part-payments or instalments apply to any of the webinars.
